

Hopewell Avenue Public School Message – November 17th, 2023

Dear Hopewell Families,

We hope you have had a wonderful week!

Yesterday access to Progress Reports (grades 1-8) and Initial Observations of Learning (Kindergarten) were sent out via our SchoolMessenger system. If you did not receive your child's Progress Report or Initial Observations of Learning message, please reach out to our school office. Progress Reports are designed to share information about a child's general progress in working towards their achievement of the curriculum expectations. Progress Reports do not include marks or letter grades, but rather progress will be reported by indicating if the student is "progressing very well", "progressing well", or "progressing with difficulty". This report is intended to provide parents with an early indication of their child's progress and will communicate areas of growth.

Parent/guardian/teacher interviews will take place next Thursday evening and Friday morning. Details about interviews are in our School News section of this message. Interview Link

Our clothing sale is wrapping up this weekend. Timelines have been tight to ensure orders come in before the December holiday. We will not be able to receive orders after the final order date - November, 19th. Further details about this are below.

As always, #HAPShots are included in this message, capturing many of the highlights of our week. A community message from Snowhawks can also be found below. The opportunity for grades 5-8 students to participate in this community program is available once again.

Wishing everyone a wonderful weekend! Bonne fin de semaine!

Sincerely,

Martina Sherwood & Sandy Miller
Principal & Vice-Principal

SCHOOL NEWS

Parent/Guardian Teacher Interviews

Parent/guardian/teacher interviews will take place the evening of Thursday, November 23rd and the morning of Friday, November 24th. We have planned for in person interviews but are offering a phone option as well. In many cases families and educators have already had the chance to meet and an interview has not been requested. If your child's educator has requested an interview you will have received an email today. If you did not receive a request for an interview and would like to schedule a meeting, you may book a time through our online booking system which can be accessed by following this link:

Interview Link

Interviews are 10 minutes in duration to allow educators to meet with as many families as possible. Please note, to allow educators to prepare for interviews, access to online booking will close at midnight Wednesday, November 22nd.

Clothing Drive

Hey Hopewell Families! Are you tossing toques? Do you have mini mitts that just don't fit? If so, we are having a winter clothing drive at school on Thursday November 23rd and Friday, November 24th! Parents/guardians can also drop items during interviews on Thursday night or Friday during interview times. Bring gloves, hats, mitts, jackets, snow pants and any other outdoor gear - all sizes from kids to adults will be gratefully received! All donations will go to families in need throughout Ottawa. We ask that all donations are cleaned before donating. Thanks for helping out!!

Book Fair

Hello Friends and Families at Hopewell! We are looking forward to setting up our book fair in the library next week! We are bringing a combination of some of our old favourites, and some new hot off the press titles! We are there long enough that you can make requests, and we can bring them in for you if we have them at the store that same week. We will be giving 20 % of sales back to the Hopewell Library, so this is a great opportunity to get something that will be a treat for you, and also give back to the school. We will be there on Thursday evening and Friday morning, so adults who are coming in to meet the teacher will also have a chance to shop. We can take cash, debit, mastercard and visa.

We look forward to seeing you next week!

Celebrating the International Decade for People of African Descent

INTERNATIONAL DECADE FOR PEOPLE OF

2015 - 2024

Our Shared Legacy
Our History - Our Humanity

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 2023
10:00 am - 4:00 pm

On Saturday, November 25, local signatories to the United Nations Declaration for People of African Descent (UNDPAD), 2015-2024 will join together for a symposium to reflect and learn on commitments made and future actions.

June Girvan, Chair of Black History Ottawa and founder of the Ubuntu Collective noted that “August 28th, 2023 marked the 190th anniversary of the adoption of the Act to Abolish Slavery in the British Empire, 1833. Almost two centuries later, there is still much work to do. As the end of the United Nations Declaration for the International Decade for People of African Descent \(2014-2025\) draws near, we must decisively interrupt; celebrate our progress; and create our own legacy.”

The symposium, entitled Our Shared Legacy; Our History – Our Humanity, will build on the theme of Ubuntu, a Zulu expression which centres on the notion of humanity towards others. Ubuntu embodies the idea of interconnectedness, kindness, compassion, and mutual support among people.

Conversations at the Symposium will focus on literacy, legacy, humanity, and dignity. Participants will gather in safe space conversation and reflect on the emancipation of slavery in the British Empire and its resonance today. Signatories to the UNDPAD will be given the opportunity to share actions taken in their respective organizations since the signing of UNDPAD. The afternoon will include a keynote address by Tom Zoellner, award-winning author of Island on Fire: The Revolt that Ended Slavery in the British Empire.

“This event is a tremendous opportunity for our community to come together for a momentous day of inspiration and reflection, and to build on our commitment to human rights and upholding the dignity of every person,” said Michele Giroux, Co-chair of the Ubuntu Collective.

Event Details:

Date: November 25, 2023

Time: 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Location: In the Auditorium of the National Gallery of Canada

Registration: Registration is free

<https://UbuntuCollective.eventbrite.ca>

Lunch: Available as an option on registration for a $20.00 fee

Attendance is open to the general public and will include representatives of the organizations that are signatories to the declaration, including the City of Ottawa, school districts, post-secondary institutions, community organizations, historical societies, labour groups, embassy representatives; educators, students and families.

The event is being hosted by the Ubuntu Collective, which includes representatives from Black History Ottawa, JDEC-Every Child is Sacred, National Gallery of Canada, Ottawa-Carleton District School Board and University of Ottawa, Faculty of Education.
